

END CORRUPTION NOW

The Trump Administration's brazen corruption is in a league of its own. The president has monetized the White House, peddling chaos, corruption, and self-dealing. It's time lawmakers hold Donald Trump and other occupants of public office accountable.

The End Corruption Now legislative agenda confronts political corruption and cleans up government by putting power back in the hands of the American people and preventing the President, Executive Branch officials, and Members of Congress from personally benefiting from their offices.

- Rep. Joe Neguse's Close the Revolving Door Act places a lifetime ban on Members of Congress from serving as lobbyists.
- Rep. Angie Craig's Restoring Integrity in Democracy Resolution prohibits Members of Congress from serving on corporate boards.
- Rep. Seth Magaziner's TRUST in Congress Act effectively bans Members of Congress, their spouses, and dependent children from trading stocks.
- Rep. Chris DeLuzio's No Corporate Crooks Act prohibits any chief executive officers, in either the public or private sector, convicted of covered financial crimes from serving in the executive branch.
- Rep. Pat Ryan's MUSK Act requires government employees to recuse themselves from any matters affecting the financial interests of their previous employers for the four-year period.
- Rep. Hillary Scholten's Integrity in Government Act strengthens checks and balances by installing new oversight measures for the White House and its top offices and protecting independent watchdogs from political retaliation.
- Rep. Emilia Sykes' Closing Bribery Loopholes Act clarifies the definition of an "official act" by a public official to prohibit public officials from improperly using their position for private gain.
